

CSUN OFFICE OF STUDENT INFORMATION

(Enacted: January 23, 1986; Effective: May 1, 1986; Revised: June 16, 1988; October 7, 1992)

1 Purpose

The Office of Student Information (OSI) shall serve to inform the student body, faculty, media and concerned members of the public as to the activities of the CSUN Student Government.

Structure

The OSI shall consist of the following:

The Director, who shall be nominated by the Executive Board and approved by the Senate;

The Assistant Director, who shall be selected as prescribed by Article IX, Section E, Item 1, of the CSUN Constitution;

Staff members shall be chosen by the Director.

Duties, Powers, and Responsibilities of the Office of Student Information

The Director:

The duties of the Director shall be as those described in Article IX, Section D, of the CSUN Constitution;

The Assistant Director:

The duties of the Assistant Director shall be as those as described in Article IX, Section E, of the CSUN Constitution.

Office of Student Information (OSI):

Report on activities of CSUN media and local media;

Maintain and update all informational materials used to inform the campus and public of CSUN's activities;

OSI shall also perform any duties delegated to it by the Executive Board or the CSUN Senate;

OSI shall establish an Operating Policy to be approved by both OSI and the CSUN Senate.