

CSUN LEADERSHIP SCHOLARSHIP

(Effective: March 31, 1988; Revised: March 26, 2001)

1 At the time of formulating each CSUN fiscal budget, one and a half percent (1.5%) of the total CSUN budget received from student fees shall be transferred to the UNLV Student Financial Services Department under the name of the CSUN Leadership Scholarships.

The monies therein shall be awarded to students displaying leadership abilities and potential, as determined by the CSUN Scholarship Committee (See Bylaw 67).

The Committee's first meeting for this scholarship shall be in March of each year. The Committee's final decisions must be reached by May 1 of each year;

The Committee, through the assistance of the UNLV Student Financial Services Department, shall request, receive, and review all application for scholarships.

The Committee shall establish denominations of awards, the number of scholarships to be awarded, and determine scholarship winners;

Scholarships will be distributed in two (2) parts, one half (1/2) in the Fall and one half (1/2) in the Spring.

All scholarship recipients must complete twelve (12) per semester while on scholarship, with a cumulative 2.5 grade point average (G.P.A.)

The UNLV Student Financial Services Department will distribute all CSUN Scholarships in accordance with University of Nevada System and UNLV guidelines.

The Leadership Scholarship shall be awarded on the following basis:

One percent (1%) of the fiscal budget shall be awarded to continuing UNLV students.

These awards shall be granted strictly on the basis (most important to least important):

Leadership position and abilities displayed while at UNLV;

Cumulative UNLV grade point average (G.P.A.);

Financial need

CSUN officials currently receiving a stipend and/or fee waiver are not eligible to compete for these scholarships, provided that they do not apply for a stipend position the following year;

If after receiving a scholarship, a recipient receives a fee waiver and/or stipend from CSUN prior to the beginning of an academic semester, he/she forfeits the remainder of the scholarship;

Any forfeited monies shall be returned to Student Financial Services for distribution in the following academic year.
